Register Now for NYSICA's Annual Luncheon on April 30

Join the NYSICA Board of Directors and your internal control colleagues for an interesting presentation with CPE credit, networking and a good meal.

Ann Lapinski, ethics attorney at the Department of Environmental Conservation will be the guest speaker. Ann will be speaking about the ways that an agency can benefit by having a strong connection between internal controls and ethics.

The meeting will also feature the formal installation of the new NYSICA Board of Directors.

The presentation will be held at The Italian Community Center, 257 Washington Ave. Extension in Albany NY on Thursday, April 30. NYSICA is underwriting the cost down to $15. The buffet-style lunch will be served from 11:30 AM to 1 PM. Ann Lapinski's presentation will immediately follow.

The buffet will include: mixed green salad with house and Chef's choice potatoes. Entrée dishes will include: Penne Pomodoro, Chicken Parm and Sausage and Peppers. Dessert will be Strawberry Shortcake.

Space is limited. Registration and payment are required by Wednesday, April 22. We have already had a terrific response of people attending!

To register, contact Debra Carpenter by e-mail or at (518) 457-9112.

Payment should be made by check payable to the NYS Internal Control Association and sent to Debra Carpenter, Room 208, Building 12, NYS Dept. of Labor, State Office Building Campus, Albany NY 12240
